Description:

Lancaster is an upscale area with large land lots and impressive homes. This executive semi-furnished 4 bedroom 4 en-suite bathroom house has all the comforts of home. The electric gated entrance leads to the covered two car garage with its own entrance to the house. The lower level comprises a large open plan kitchen, complete with wet bar and breakfast nook, living and dining room with access to a covered patio and a laundry room. The guest bedroom is located on the lower level and is air conditioned with a ceiling fan, with an en-suite bathroom that can be accessed from the living area and has a door to the patio. The next level up is solely for the master bedroom which has high ceilings, air conditioning and a ceiling fan, walk in closet and en-suite bathroom with double sinks. Heading upstairs from the master is a small alcove area that could be used as an office or study area, and two further bedrooms en-suite with air conditioning and ceiling fans. The house sits on 20,000 square feet of land, with lovely trees and flowers. The home also has an alarm system, security grills, storage room and wireless internet access. Situated close to the ABC Highway, this home is close to both Warrens and Holetown. Gardening is included.
